REPENTANCE COMES AT ELEVENTH HOUR

Just before sentence repentance is the latest fad in the county jail. A few hours before facing the court it is the hobby for the prisoners to "get religion." John Johnson was the latest to face Judge Stanford. Until the moment came for the sentence to be pronounced Johnson denied his guilt, though his partner in crime had previously confessed he had robbed half a dozen homes in this city.

"I owe it to society to plead guilty," said Johnson to the judge in a tremulous tone.

Judge Stanford cast a glance at the knife, iron bar and gun Johnson and Lewis had employed in their profession and gave them ten to twelve years in the state penitentiary.

Robert Gill and George Smith who collected some $300 worth of inner tubes from private garages in Phoenix will pass from five to seven years in Florence as the guests of the state.

Victor Jefferson, who slashed his "baby friend" will be out of town for a year or two and his residence will also be Florence.

Barra and Ordenez, two Mexicans, who pleaded guilty to burglary were given a one to two year sentence and Guadalupe Martinez a five years' suspended sentence for non-support. Martinez must give his family $20 a month.

BELIEVE VILLA MAY ATTACK CHIHUAHUA CITY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 7.—Pears that Chihuahua City will be attacked by forces led by Francisco Villa are general in that city according to persons reaching here today from the south. The fears, it is said, extend to the soldiers of the de facto government and numerous rumors concerning the activities of Villa are given credence.

Among the reports circulated is one that Villa has vowed not to shave until he can do so in Chihuahua City. Ranchers in the vicinity of Santa Clara are said to have brought this story to the capital. A number of foreigners are said to be preparing to leave for the United States as soon as they are assured of adequate protection.

The military force dominated the capital, it was said. The police force consisting of eight men was disbanded a week ago after Carranza's general, taking exception to the impounding of two horses, shot and killed two policemen.

Beyond the sending of 250 soldiers to Sanz, the scene of the murder of General Ornelas by Villa at the head of a train from Juarez a week ago, nothing has been done in Chihuahua City to aid in the chase of Villa, according to the advices.

Hipolito Villa Arrested

HAVANA, Feb. 7.—Colonel Hipolito Villa, brother of General Francisco Villa, was arrested today at the request of William E. Gonzalez, the American minister to Cuba. Villa is charged with damaging the railroad near El Paso. He was placed in jail to await extradition proceedings.

In the jail tonight Villa denied having any connection with destruction of the railroads. He said he believed that his arrest was due to the belief of the American government that to hold him as a hostage his brother Francisco Villa would cease killing Americans. He added, however, that this was a mistake, as Francisco did not care whether he was dead or alive.

Colonel Hipolito Villa fled to the United States last December 20. He was arrested at San Antonio on a charge of bringing stolen property into Texas. He was released from custody under $5,000 bond on Christmas day last and sailed for Havana on January 15.

FIGHTING IN

Official communication was issued today:

"In the Riga region there was a heavy artillery duel. In the region of Jacobstadt there was a successful reconnaissance along the Houssey river beyond the enemy's entanglements, putting the enemy to flight. On the right wing of the Dvinsk positions, a German armored motor car was struck by a shell and destroyed.

"The Germans fired big shells on the railway station at Dikmo, north of Dvinsk. We have established beyond doubt that the Germans are using our distinctive signs on their aircraft.

"In one sector of General Letchibsky's line, north of Bojana (Bukovina), we exploded a mine under the enemy's trench entanglements. The explosion wrecked the trenches and damaged the entanglements. Directly our men advanced to the attack and captured the crater, from which by a plentiful use of bombs they got into the enemy trenches, where they found numerous bodies.

"In the same region, Corporal Gouschenko, who is in reality a girl named Tcherniavika, and who volunteered for scouting duty, got through the enemy's entanglements and, despite a serious wound in the leg and the fracture of a bone, accomplished her object and returned to our trenches.

"Caucasus frontier: In the coast region, our troops, having passed the Arkhar river, have attacked the Turks and dislodged them from a series of trenches, one above another. On the northern shore of Lake Van we occupied the region east of Dildpevaskat. In Persia we drove back the enemy in the region of Kangavar."

PASTOR PLEADS NOT GUILTY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

OROVILLE, Cal., Feb. 7.—Rev. Madison Slaughter of Chico pleaded not guilty today to charges of improper conduct made in five indictments found by the grand jury. Before the Chico pastor was called upon to plead Judge Gregory overruled the demurrers interposed last week and the motion to quash the indictments. The trial on the first indictment has been set for March 7. District Attorney R. A. Leonard has requested the Sacramento office of the attorney general to appoint a deputy to aid the prosecution. The matter will be referred to the attorney general.

ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS AIRSHIP

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 7.—Osborne Coffey, a Goleta rancher today reported having seen a mysterious airship again Sunday night, when it flew inland and played a searchlight oceanward, occasionally lighting up a ship that lay about three miles off shore. An automobile party reported having seen an air craft late Sunday afternoon flying two miles from shore, headed towards the islands.

MUSN'T IMPORT LUXURIES

BERLIN (Via London) Feb. 7.—The Tageblatt announces that it is informed from a semi-official source that a ban on the importation of articles of luxury of every description is impending.

KILLING OF "BAD" INDIAN ROUSES NAVAJOS AGAINST THE WHITES

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Feb. 7.—The Indians on the Navajo reservation in northeastern Arizona were threatening to kill all the white inhabitants, and burn the government buildings there, according to William Dubree, superintendent of construction of the Indian school at Tuba, who arrived here late yesterday with information concerning the threatened uprising.

The few Caucasian families living at Tuba have but a small amount of arms and ammunition with which to defend themselves, Dubree said today, in telling of the threats of the Indians.

Superintendent T. Runke and two police officers of Tuba attempted to arrest a "bad" Indian at a point about 50 miles north of that town January 26, Dubree stated. The Indian shot at the officers and was himself killed when the policemen returned the fire.

Friends of the Indian immediately began to foment trouble among other Indians on the reservation, he added and some of the whites, who went on the warpath in the Bluff, Utah, district about a year ago, also began agitating a disturbance among this band.

Tuba is on the "Painted Desert," about 50 miles north of here. The Indian school and headquarters of the Indian superintendent are located there.

United States Attorney Tom Flynn, and United States Marshal Joe Dillon both received notice yesterday of the threatened Indian trouble on the Navajo reservation. Flynn at once telegraphed to the department of justice at Washington for instruction.

In speaking of the case yesterday afternoon, Marshal Dillon stated that in case serious trouble resulted, United States troops would undoubtedly be dispatched. The snow on the trails through the mountains, leading to the desert near the scene of the trouble, is so deep, as to almost prohibit the transporting of troops. It would take some time to get any number of soldiers on the scene.

No Official Word

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 7.—Local government officials have received no official notification of the threatened Indian uprising on the Navajo reservation. They do not believe there is any danger of a serious situation there.

Attention is called to the fact that Chief Bzoshie, more than 80 years old, the moving spirit among the Navajos, is now friendly. Some years ago he led an uprising that assumed serious proportions. Major General Hugh L. Scott, on that occasion went into the Navajo country, accompanied only by his aide and orderly and induced Bzoshie to surrender. Bzoshie served a short prison term and since that time has been a model Indian.

On the occasion of the so-called Ute war in Southern Utah, nine months ago Bzoshie and Bob Martin, the latter an Indian policeman on the Navajo reservation, were called upon by General Scott for assistance in inducing the Utes to surrender. Both joined General Scott and went with him to Mexican Hat, near Navajo mountains, where the general met the renegade Utes and made peace.

COMMERCE CLUBS OPEN CONVENTION

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The chamber of commerce of the United States composed of more than 700 commercial organizations, will open its annual meeting here tomorrow. Men high in the business and political life of the nation, including three cabinet officers, will deliver addresses on legislative and commercial topics now under general discussion and the sessions will close with a dinner Thursday night with President Wilson as the speaker.

TANNERS GIVEN INCREASE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

KANE, Pa., Feb. 7.—The Elk Tanning Company, which operates twenty tanneries in this section, announced today that an increase in wages amounting to fifteen cents a day had been granted its employees.

Three thousand persons are affected.

COL. HEPBURN IS DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

CLARINDA, Ia., Feb. 7.—Colonel William P. Hepburn, former member of congress from this district died here today. He had been suffering from heart and kidney trouble for several months. Details of the funeral had not been arranged tonight.

Col. William P. Hepburn, although twenty years in congress, became best known throughout the country during the Roosevelt administration. It was he who framed what later was called the Hepburn law, prohibiting rebates and discrimination by railroads. As chairman of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce in the first session of the fifty-ninth congress he was the author of three acts out of five, which the then President Roosevelt afterward declared would cause that congress to be memorable in history because of its constructive legislation. Of the five acts, four came from Col. Hepburn's committee and three of them—the Hepburn law, the pure food act and the public health act—were framed by Col. Hepburn himself.

Col. Hepburn was thirteen times the nominee of his party in the Eighth Iowa district, his first contest in 1889 being the most remarkable. The convention was held at Council Bluffs and Congressman Sapp had received fifty-four votes—three less than a majority—without diminution 334 times. After a three days' session the convention took a recess of four days. Its second session covered two days and Col. Hepburn was nominated on the 35th ballot, receiving fifty-nine votes. His twelve subsequent nominations were practically unanimous. Two of them were by acclamation. During his career in congress which ended March 4, 1903, Col. Hepburn supported every measure that became law looking to the control of common carriers. Many of these bills were introduced by him.
